It was a cracker !!

It was a lovely day!!

There were lots of lovely mares and foals seen on the run !!

..and a field full of frisky bullocks (not Bulls!!) as Hangover Blues thought...

The BEER STOP was the 'Piece de la Resistance' of the run, taken over and artistically managed by Taxi, Gorilla and Lightning...the selection of fine ales and the ginger wine were a TOTAL HIT with the happy hashers.

You can't fool old fart hashers...Jetstream was not to be fooled into the long check back at the start, "It's ALWAYS a check back up there", he said. He was right!!

Here's the MAP to prove it...See below !!

Prize for TOTAL DONKEY goes to WIMP and his lovely big black doggy.....he got sucked into each and every turn back/check back..eejit!!

However, best 'CHARGE' was awarded to 'ONLY ME' for a classic WEE WEE behind a hedge in full view of every hasher who ran up the hill beside her.....

Best SMILES were observed by the hare as he awaited to escort the back walkers (BIG SWINGER and IT WILL COME OFF) who came into sight at the entrance to the lovely wee path leading to the Church and the BEER STOP beyond....."No one ever waits for us!! SHAMMY YOU are a such a GENTLEMAN !!!"

Mais Oui !!

Where you went....

ADNAMS GHOST SHIP was the hit beer at the BULL, much to everyone's delight...

DEBONAIR'S climatic influence, however, was in decline that day. Once outside, for circular things, the sun went on holiday and the clouds and their friends, COLD WIND and ICY DRIZZLE arrived.

Not too many enjoyed the fine Sunday roast, but the UPPER CLASS TART and POSH knew a good thing and had their combined snouts in the trough..

“COME BACK SOON!!”, said our host and hostess.

“We think we should”, say Shammy & U-Bend...
